UHL HOUSE
San Antonio, Bexar County, Texas.

Owner: Mrs. Clara Uhl

Date of Erection: 1855

Architect: Unknown

Builder: Unknown

Present Condition: Fair

Number of Stories: One

Materials of Construction: Limestone, pine, cypress and oak.

Other Existing Records: None

Additional Data:

This house built of native limestone, pine, oak, cypress and plaster, is located in the heart of an early German settlement in San Antonio. It differs from other early houses in this community, in that it has a roofed porch across the front, supported on square wood columns.

The six main rooms are divided by a center hall; ceilings are quite high. The house contains several fireplaces, mantels and shelves of which are of wood.
